Summary of Questions:

- The questionnaire captured an overall very positive view of the school, raising no significant majority issues;
- All parents feel well informed about their child's achievements and progress;
- An overwhelming majority of parents felt that the format of parents' consultations have been effective – this would link to the parents feeling well informed;
- The majority of parents agree or strongly agree that communication is effective and that relationships are a strength of the school;
- Pupils at Kingsmoor are happy and enjoy coming to school;
- The results show how effectively parents feel that the school is well led and managed;
- Parents have acknowledged that the curriculum is broad and enriched.

Next Steps and Areas for Development:

- The role and presence of the governing body needs to be communicated to parents, with an increased visibility of governors within the school community and at key events;
- Explore opportunities to further develop opportunities for parents to make suggestions of how to improve – there was a group of parents who felt that they were not able to make suggestions; however, this was not the view of the majority.

Summary of Comments:

The ones we were delighted to read:

- “Excellent inclusion of children”
- “Lovely staff – teaching, support and office”
- “Supports [the school] Y6 pupils excellent towards SATs and getting ready for senior school”
- “Fantastic mentoring for students who need a little ‘extra’ help with their school work”
- “Very proud of how he’s been taught in class”
- “Communication to parents is good”
- “School trips have picked up now. Used to be rather quite poor”
- “My children are happy to be at the school”
- “My children are happy to be at the school”

Comments which we will reflect upon:

- “I would like to see homework marked more effectively so we can see where are children may or may not have got questions right”
- “The school and staff only listen when it suits them. They have favourites within pupils who can do no wrong” [disappointing that this parent had a long list of complaints but could not identify any positives on their form].
- “Plants, gardening, improvements of outdoor space including shaded eating area outside”
- “My children are happy to be at the school”
